

Ballet - Year 4 (Grade 3 RAD)

Classical Ballet is the foundation for all styles of dance. The Classical Ballet classes will follow the Royal Academy of Dance Syllabus and students have the option to complete the formal examinations by an external examiner at the end of the year. The graded syllabi provide a broad practical dance education progressively developing the technical, musical and performance skills of the student. The classes will incorporate Classical Ballet and Character. Not all students are guaranteed entry into the RAD Ballet Examinations. All students wishing to be considered for the examinations must attend 2 classes a week.

Please note: start and end dates for Ballet are different to General Co-curricular Dance class, please read all information carefully.
